

COOKIE POLICY

This website <https://www.disaronnogroup.com> (“Website”) uses cookies and other tracking technologies (including, by way of example, pixels), provided and managed directly by Illva Saronno Holding S.p.A. and by third parties, to provide visitors and users (“User(s)”) with a more user-friendly, efficient and personalized browsing experience (collectively “Cookies” or “Tracking Tools”).

This policy describes the Cookies installed by the Site and their characteristics and purposes.

WHAT ARE COOKIES AND FOR WHAT PURPOSES CAN THEY BE USED

Cookies are text files or packets of information created by certain websites on the User’s computer when they access a particular site, with the aim of storing and transmitting information. Cookies are sent from a web server (which is the computer on which the visited website is running) to the user’s browser (Internet Explorer, Mozilla Firefox, Google Chrome, etc.) and stored on the user’s computer; they are then sent back to the website during subsequent visits.

Certain operations could not be carried out without the use of cookies, which are therefore technically necessary in some cases. In other cases, the Website uses cookies to facilitate and improve the User’s browsing experience or to enable them to use specifically requested services.

Cookies are generally classified according to the criteria described below:

- based on the entity that installs them on the User’s device, depending on whether it is the operator of the website the User is visiting (so-called “first-party cookies”) or a different website, which installs cookies via the first website (so-called “third-party cookies”);
- based on their duration, into persistent cookies, i.e. those that remain stored on the User’s device even after the browser is closed and until a pre-set expiry date (these include, by way of example, cookies used to maintain authentication on the Website, where applicable, thereby avoiding the need to re-enter authentication credentials), and session cookies, which are not stored persistently but are automatically deleted each time the browser is closed;
- depending on the purpose of each cookie: some cookies allow the website that installed them to remember, for example, the preferences expressed by the user whilst browsing or registering (so-called “Technical Cookies”) and are necessary for the proper functioning of the Website or the services enabled or requested by the User (this category includes, for example, session cookies necessary for authentication on the Website, where applicable); so-called “Functionality Cookies” allow the user to browse according to selected criteria; some cookies and similar technologies are used to process statistical information on the use of the Site and its functioning, with the aim of measuring its performance and thus improving its usability (so-called “Analytical Cookies” or “Measurement Cookies”). Finally, other cookies allow the site that installed them to monitor the user’s browsing, including for the purpose of displaying advertisements that are relevant and engaging for the individual user (so-called “Marketing Cookies”), in line with the preferences expressed by the user whilst browsing the web and/or to assess the effectiveness of advertising campaigns and content presented to the user (so-called “Profiling Cookies” or “Targeting Cookies”).

USER CONSENT TO COOKIES / TRACKING TOOLS

Under current legislation, it is not mandatory to seek the User's consent regarding the use of technical cookies, as these are necessary to provide the services requested whilst browsing the Website.

Technical Cookies are automatically installed by the Website when the User first visits any page of the Website and, unless the User chooses otherwise, only those Technical Cookies that are strictly necessary are subsequently activated.

Conversely, Marketing Cookies and Analytics Cookies, where applicable, are installed only upon the User's express consent.

When the User accesses the Website, a dedicated banner informs them that the Website also uses Marketing Cookies and Analytics Cookies and that they may accept the use of these Cookies by clicking the relevant button on the Cookie banner or by accessing the Cookie management section ("Banner").

If the User does not wish to give their consent, they may at any time decide to block or disable, in whole or in part, Cookies using one or more of the following methods:

- by clicking on the "X" in the top right-hand corner of the Banner;
- by changing the settings in the Cookie management panel accessed via the Banner;
- by changing the specific settings of the browser used to browse the Website (please refer to the "Enabling and disabling Cookies" section for further information).

Failure to consent, initially or subsequently, to Analytical Cookies will in no way affect your ability to visit the Website and access its content.

ENABLING AND DISABLING COOKIES

In this regard, please note that changes to Cookie preferences take effect from the moment they are made by the User via the methods described above and, therefore, only for the period following that moment.

User browser settings

In addition to the above, you have the option to select and/or deselect cookies on your device via your browser settings (by selecting the “Settings” menu, clicking on “Internet Options”, opening the “Privacy” tab and choosing the desired level of cookie blocking).

In any case, the User is advised to carefully review the policies and notices made available and published by third parties.
